

Day Two: Read Genesis 42:1 – 44:34

- What was Joseph trying to accomplish by all his strange dealings with his brothers?

- What reason did Joseph's brothers give for all their misfortune? (42:21)

Day Three: Read Genesis 42:1 – 44:34

- How would you define your conscience? In what way does the conscience of a believer respond differently than the conscience of an unbeliever?

- Read again your notes from Sunday morning's sermon. About what has God been dealing with you the most this week? What are you going to do about it?

Day Four: Read Genesis 42:1 – 44:34

- According to Isaiah 6:1-8, how is one's sensitivity to sin enhanced?

- Meditate on the following statement regarding the conscience?

The human conscience is a wonderful gift of God to mankind. Without it there would be no limit to the atrocities man would devise. Even with the existence of our conscience, we have learned to override it or simply ignore it and continue to do what our evil heart desires. Ask God right now to give you a greater sensitivity to the work of the Holy Spirit through your sanctified conscience.

Day Five: Read Genesis 42:1 – 44:34

- How did King David react when the prophet Nathan confronted him about his sin? (II Samuel 12:1-14)

"Repentance"

"A change of attitude which results in a change of action"
